As this is only our third catalogue in 1986, we will use this opportunity to communicate our current status and our plans for the near-future. After reading this, do review the coin offerings and then take a few minutes to complete the questionnaire at pages 17-18.

We will not conduct an autumn auction this year. When we began our semi-annual auction format six years ago, we did so because there were simply too many worthy coins to include in a single annual sale as we had previously done. Right now, this is not the situation.

As market prices have slowly, but relentlessly, declined each year from their 1979-1981 peaks, the number of exceptional coins available to the marketplace has also precipitously decreased. At this juncture, it is very difficult to assemble, within a six-month time period, an extensive and diversified gathering covering all general areas of Latin American coinage. The bottomline is that the great mass of better items are in "strong hands," i.e., affluent collectors/investors who do not need to sell them. At today's low to moderate values, they are generally unwilling to dispose of them. This situation is likely to persist until a significant movement occurs in price structure.

Our next auction is scheduled for May 6, 1987. We already have 250 fully catalogued lots ready for inclusion. Before mid-January, we need to obtain 250-500 additional lots of interesting material. If you have an appealing consignment available, please contact us by phone or letter. However, do consider that it is generally not advantageous to include mundane inexpensive items.

Our yearly sales total for 1986 will probably equal the 1983-1985 average despite our having only one auction. This is due to our current emphasis on brokering rare coins by private-treaty. Although atypical in the numismatic business, this has proven effective for all parties during this period when normal wholesale — retail price spreads are blurred and erratic. If you have some exceptional items you wish to sell or to buy, I would like to speak to you. The price is only a secondary consideration in many of these transactions.

Currently, we have clients anxious for the following: Potosi round and heartshaped cobs, superior early Brazilian silver, nice Santiago colonial silver, rare date Costa Rican gold and silver, exceptional Cuban items including proofs, any silver Santo Domingo, all better Ecuadorian coins, unholed Guatemala pillar minors, rare Haitian patterns, all rare Honduran issues, round Mexican cob 8 Reales, rare Paraguay and Uruguay gold and patterns, exceptional Lima cobs, choice Peruvian 1822-1857 pieces of all four mints and unusual Venezuelan items. Obviously, we also want all other exceptional Latin American coins.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

This is a combination fixed-pricelist and auction. It is a fixed-pricelist from date of issuance through December 15. All items are available for immediate purchase on the usual first-come, first-served basis at the "price" listed in the first column.

All items remaining unsold on December 16 will become auction lots. The "reserve" price indicated in the second column is the lowest bid we will accept for each item. Auction bids should be in whole dollar units. Obviously, bidders are wise to bid 5%-20% over the minimum in order to win lots from those who routinely bid the reserve or $1 over it.

Alternates are solicited, and will be used as such, in both the fixed-pricelist and auction phases. You can also place a "spending cap" (any limit you state) in both segments. Credit is available for six months with a 25% downpayment. Phone calls are welcome but our phones are not always attended; letters receive equal preference. We will be traveling on November 10-15 and December 10-15.

All auction lots will be available for viewing at our usual Table #2 at the New York International December 13-15.

It is worth noting that around 90% (at least 650) of these items are specimens just added to our stock and not previously offered. We feel the "prices" are very conservative and the auction "reserves" are below our typical buying prices. We may not have another list in the next six months so do use this opportunity even if it necessitates taking advantage of our credit offer.

Finally, those who return the questionnaire will be given preference as we expand our private-treaty services. If you really enjoy collecting Latin American coins, you will be adequately rewarded for your effort in answering our questions. As a minimum, you will receive our next auction catalogue at no charge whereas we will probably charge $5 to inactive collectors. Your contributions will benefit all of us.

MINOR COINS OF LATIN AMERICA

As with the previous two sections, 90% of these coins are "fresh" in our stock, i.e. never previously listed. Some of the sections have been presented using a two-column format which saves room but does not allow for both a "price" and "reserve" column. As mentioned elsewhere, the auction reserve for all such pieces is 70% of the listed price.

A) COLLECTING SPECIALTY:

- 1) As a collector of at least one Latin American coinage series, would you rate your level of intensity of interest as:
 - ☐ dormant/indifference; ☐ casual/sporadic bursts of enthusiasm;
 - ☐ always active but not a priority activity on a regular basis;
 - ☐ very serious/an integral part of my life; or ☐ intense/my passion.
- 2) What segments of the Latin American coinage series do you collect? You can put a double-checkmark (or other notation) on areas of primary importance and a single checkmark on areas of lesser priority.

B) QUALITY as a determining factor:

- 3) What is your minimum acceptable grade, as a general rule: ☐ unimportant;
☐ average circulated with or without typical minor flaws;
☐ somewhat above average with emphasis on "eye appeal";
☐ unflawed and with minimum wear; ☐ uncirculated;
☐ prefer the finest known or finest available to private collectors.
- 4) In order to finish a collection, would you accept the final few pieces in a significantly lower grade: ☐ yes; ☐ no.

C) COST as a determining factor:

- 5) If you must pay a price for a piece you would really like to acquire that is 25% above your analysis of its value, would you: ☐ buy it anyway; ☐ probably buy it;
☐ probably not buy it; ☐ definitely not buy it.
- 6) If you were offered a cash price for your entire Latin American coin holdings equal to double its "retail value" (as you gauge it to be), would you:
☐ sell it without hesitation; ☐ probably accept the offer;
☐ analyze the offer but probably not sell; ☐ not sell.

D) COLLECTING GOAL:

- 7) In collecting your specialty, is your long term goal: ☐ a representative selection in reasonably nice quality; ☐ a complete date or type set in the best grade easily affordable; ☐ a complete date or type set in the finest grade available;
☐ a nice assortment but only if in choice grade; ☐ assembling one of the best such collections; ☐ no particular goal.
- 8) Assuming good health and a viable economic situation, do you envision collecting some Latin American coinage ten years from now:
☐ yes; ☐ no; ☐ probably so; ☐ probably not; ☐ impossible to predict.

E) NUMISMATIC LITERATURE:

- 9) Do you put considerable energy into assembling your library: ☐ yes; ☐ no.
- 10) Do you read or peruse the books relevant to your specialty: ☐ yes; ☐ no.
- 11) Put a checkmark by the books you own: ☐ Krause-Mishler; ☐ Yeoman;
☐ Elizondo; ☐ Sellschopp or G-S; ☐ Calbeto; ☐ Harris; ☐ Wayte Raymond;
☐ Fonrobert; ☐ Gutttag; ☐ Friedberg; ☐ Burzio; ☐ Calico; ☐ Castan-Cayon.
- 12) Do you save most worthwhile auction catalogs and/or pricelists: ☐ yes; ☐ no.
- 13) If you collect crowns, which book is your primary reference: ☐ KM;
☐ Yeoman/Craig; ☐ Elizondo; ☐ SDNSA; ☐ Calbeto; ☐ Calico.
- 14) If you collect crowns, how important would you rate the issuance of a new book similar to Elizondo but updated, with much greater background data, and accurate rarity ratings: ☐ crucially needed; ☐ would be desirable and of considerable use to me; ☐ would be useful but would not affect my collecting enthusiasm; ☐ would probably be obtained by me at some point; ☐ seems superfluous due to adequate current literature;
☐ not important to me or my collection.
- 15) Do you find the KM numbering system and type divisions to be useful in organizing your collection: ☐ yes; ☐ no.
- 16) Do you use KM or Yeoman/Craig numbers: ☐ KM; ☐ Y/C.
- 17) Has your level of enthusiasm been reduced by the confusion and excesses in the KM listings: ☐ yes; ☐ no; ☐ uncertain.
- 18) Would you seriously consider collecting cobs if a concise but thorough reference existed: ☐ yes; ☐ no; ☐ already collect them; ☐ perhaps.

F) FREEMAN CRAIG & CO. literature:

- 19) How important to you is the research data included in our auction catalogs: ☐ very important and useful; ☐ useful but not crucial; ☐ not a major influence;
☐ unimportant to me.
- 20) Relative to other catalogues and auctions received, how do you rate our auction catalogues: ☐ one of the numismatic highlights of each year; ☐ among my favorites; ☐ equal to several others; ☐ not important to me.
- 21) Would you be willing to let your collection and/or your knowledge be used in assembling some new references on various Latin American coinage series by Freeman: ☐ yes; ☐ no; ☐ don't know.
- 22) Would you pay to receive our auction catalogues if you did not place any bids: ☐ yes; ☐ no.
